THE CIVET-CATS

"It's all very fine to be a Malayan Civet-Cat but to be a common Civet-Cat is better," said the Civet-Cat.

"One would expect such a speech from you, wouldn't one?" asked the Malayan Civet-Cat.

"One might, I do not know," said
the Civet-Cat.

"Of course," he added, "you are like me and your family is like my family and our families are like each other and all the rest of it but still I am glad

I am not you.

"I am glad you aren't too," said the Malayan Civet-Cat, "for if you were, you would always be sorry you were and that would be most mixing and upsetting.

"Of course you can't help but admit that I have large spots and that they are actually larger than yours.

"I have a stronger looking body and I am stronger too."

"You aren't as fine as I am," said the Civet-Cat. "I am not too strong for that would make me a little toughened and not so refined as I now am. "I have large spots and my whole body is beautifully marked. I have a fine ring-streaked tail too. "I belong to the wildcat family and "I belong to the wildcat family and at the same time I look a little like a skunk.

"All creatures wouldn't consider that an honor but I do, for I consider the skunk a very handsome creature.

"And I have an odor which is something like the skunk's. Most creatures wouldn't like that but I do, oh yes, I do. If I didn't I would change my perfume but I do like it. All Civet-Cats do."

"Yes." said Mrs. Civet-Cat, "we all do. If we hadn't cared for the family perfume we wouldn't have clung to

"She Speaks the Truth."

It or allowed it to cling to us all these years.

"But we've appreciated it if others have not. But what do we care if they have the bad taste not to like it? It only shows what they are, or at least what they are not. They are not Civet-Cats. That much is certain."

"I am a Spotted Lynx." said the animal in the next cage in the zoo. "I am beautiful and my spots make me look so dressed up."

"Ah, but you haven't any real family perfume such as we have," Mrs. Civet-Cat remarked.

"She speaks the truth," said Mr.

Civet-Cat.

"What is more you sound very fine with your name of Spotted Lynx," said Mrs. Civet-Cat, "but you are really nothing more than a wildcat."

"I belong to the family," said the Spotted Lynx, "and I admit it, And you also are of the cat family."

you also are of the cat family."

"Yes, but so different from you,"
Mrs. Civet-Cat answered.

"There are many different creatures in the zoo," she continued, "who have fine sounding names, and who live here in this house, such as the Black Paradoxure and the African Ichneumon, a very black animal from the Malay peninsula called the Bear-Cat, or, as he prefers to be called, the Binturong. "There is the Suricate or Siender-Tailed Meerkat of South Africa, too.

"But they aren't as interesting as we are. No, not they. We have simple names. Folks know we belong to the great cat family and civet cats are becoming more and more known.

"Handsome ladies are wearing us as coats and furs and muffs and as decorations on their hats.

"They say that when our fur becomes damp or when they wear us out in the wet weather we're especially generous with our family perfume but they're not in the least appreciative. They are very lacking in thankfulness.

"Still, they do us the honor to wear us as a family and treat us as they would fox or seal or something noble and fine and beautiful like that.

"And if we give them of our perfume we give it without extra charge so even if they don't appreciate it they ought to be glad we don't charge them for it."

"I suppose," said Mr. Civet-Cat, "you talk about the honor of being worn as a fur for you know that you are safe here in the zoo."

And Mrs. Civet-Cat made a me-owing sound to show that she agreed.

Won the Tug.

"Look, daddy," said a little six-yearold. "I pulled this cornstalk right up all by myself."

"Why, but you are strong!" said his ather.

"I guess I am, daddy. The whole world had hold of the other end of it,"
